

Language Proficiency Test Fee Waiver

Application Form

The GSAH Language Proficiency Test Fee Waiver is open to all MSU students with a primary or secondary major in Global Studies in the Arts and Humanities that can demonstrate financial need. Its purpose is to provide financial support in meeting the language proficiency requirement of the GSAH major. Please be sure to provide all the information requested below; only complete applications will be considered. If you have questions about the waiver or the application procedures, please contact the GSAH Program office (Phone: 517-353-8848; email: relucas@msu.edu).

Personal Statement (1 Page): The Testing Fee Waiver is intended for students for whom paying the cost of testing is a financial hardship. Please address in your statement your readiness for the language proficiency testing (the ways in which you prepared) and why the waiver would be helpful to you.

Deadline: Application is due by the “Middle of the Semester” date of the term in which the test is to be taken. See <http://www.reg.msu.edu/ROInfo/Calendar/Academic.aspx> for current and future dates.

Submit the printed, signed form and a one page personal statement to:
Global Studies in the Arts & Humanities Program

Michigan State University
East Lansing MI 48824

By signing below:

- I hereby give my authorization for the program to review my academic record (transcript, etc.)
- I hereby give my authorization for the program to determine my financial need in consultation with the Office of Financial Aid. A current FAFSA needs to be on file with MSU.
- I understand that the GSAH program will only provide the waiver for one language proficiency test. If I do not receive a high enough score, I will need to fund any additional testing.
